15
 16 Based upon the stipulation of the parties for the dismissal of the claims asserted by fourth-
 17 party plaintiff Admiral Insurance Company against fourth-party defendant Larry Katz, and good 18 cause appearing therefor,

19 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that all of the claims of fourth-party plaintiff Admiral 20 Insurance Company against fourth-party defendant Larry Katz are dismissed without prejudice as 21 follows:

22 1. Katz shall be bound by all orders, findings, conclusions, determinations, decrees, 23 stipulations, judgments, settlements and/or agreements made or entered into between any parties
 24 in this action ("Action") in the same manner and to the same extent as if Katz had been a party to 25 such Action and/or a party to any settlement agreement.

26 2. All parties shall bear their own costs and attorney fees in connection with the 27 dismissal, without prejudice, of the claims against Katz.

28 3. All statutes of limitations, statutes regarding the prosecution of claims or the time

1 within which a trial must be held or judgment must be entered, and all defenses based on delay
2 and prosecution (collectively "Statutes of Limitations") with respect to claims of Admiral against 3 Katz provided for by law, equity or judicial decision shall be tolled. In the event that Admiral re-
4 files or renews the Action, or any claims in connection with the Action, in the future against Katz, 5 the period from October 15, 2008 up to and including the date of re-filing the renewal of the 6 Action, shall not be included for purposes of computing the applicable time periods for Statutes 7 of Limitations. This tolling provision shall not in any way serve to extend any Statutes of 8 Limitations that had already run as of and including October 15, 2008.

9 4. This Order does not pertain to any other parties in the Action, and all such other 10 parties remain as parties to the Action.

11 IT IS SO ORDERED.

12 DATED: November 4, 2008
